Jason Baumann, former Director of Education for USA Diving, will be leading another Diving Coaches Clinic this summer. He has coached at all levels of the sport including developmental, high school, NCAA Division I, and beyond, has led cultural exchange training trips, and developed the aerial training curriculum and certification program for USA Diving. Let Jason share his 30+ years of experience and expertise as an athlete, coach and administrator with you! The clinic will include lectures, demonstrations, drills, and more. Jason currently coaches Edina High School and North Star Diving Club and will tailor the clinic to meet your needs.
